“How Are You Feeling Today?”
Site #1
Dr. N. L. Lee House
655 Holly
1872
Home to Junction City’s first physician, the one story back portion was built prior to 1872 and pulled by horses from Lancaster. Dr. Lee used the parlor as his office.

“How Are You Feeling Today?”
Site #1
Dr. N. L. Lee House
655 Holly
1872
Home to Junction City’s first physician, the one story back portion was built prior to 1872 and pulled by horses from Lancaster. Dr. Lee used the parlor as his office.

“Gathering Together”
Site #2
Cumberland Presbyterian Church
NE corner of 7th & Holly
1871
The first church to be built in Junction City was also used as school. Later, a bell tower was removed and the second story added, converting it to a hotel.

“Gathering Together”
Site #2
Cumberland Presbyterian Church
NE corner of 7th & Holly
1871
The first church to be built in Junction City was also used as school. Later, a bell tower was removed and the second story added, converting it to a hotel.

“Finnish Fanfare”
Site #3
Finnish Train
5th & Holly in Founders’ Park
1974
The locomotive was built in Finland and used during WWI. In 1980, it was transported from Portland, Oregon, to Junction City, after negotiations with the Finnish Consul.

“Finnish Fanfare”
Site #3
Finnish Train
5th & Holly in Founders’ Park
1974
The locomotive was built in Finland and used during WWI. In 1980, it was transported from Portland, Oregon, to Junction City, after negotiations with the Finnish Consul.

“Back in Time”
Site #5
The Pitney House
289 W 4th
1874
The Pitneys bought the house three years after they were married. Mary Pitney was born in this house and lived here most of her life. She left it to the local historical society upon her death in 1995.

“Back in Time”
Site #5
The Pitney House
289 W 4th
1874
The Pitneys bought the house three years after they were married. Mary Pitney was born in this house and lived here most of her life. She left it to the local historical society upon her death in 1995.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Need a Place to Stay?”
Site #8
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
467 Front -1890
Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Anna M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Need a Place to Stay?”
Site #8
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
467 Front -1890
Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Anna M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Need a Place to Stay?”
Site #8
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
467 Front -1890
Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Anna M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Need a Place to Stay?”
Site #8
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
467 Front -1890
Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Anna M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Fish’s Livery Stable
SE corner of 5th & Greenwood
circa 1913
This stable had good rigs, good teams and responsible drivers for the Junction-Monroe stage route.
“How Are You Feeling Today?”
Site #1
Dr. N. L. Lee House
655 Holly
1872

Home to Junction City’s first physician, the one-story back portion was built prior to 1872 and pulled by horses from Lancaster. Dr. Lee used the parlor as his office.

“Gathering Together”
Site #2
Cumberland Presbyterian Church
NE corner of 7th & Holly
1871

The first church to be built in Junction City was also used as school. Later, a bell tower was removed and the second story added, converting it to a hotel.

“Finnish Fanfare”
Site #3
Finnish Train
5th & Holly in Founder’s Park
1914

This locomotive was built in Finland and used during WWI. In 1980, it was transported from Portland, Oregon, to Junction City, after negotiations with the Finnish Consul.

“All Aboard”
Site #4
The Oregon Electric Depot
5W corner of 5th & Holly
1911-1912

The first Oregon Electric train rolled into Junction City on October 15, 1912. With 20 passenger stops per day, this train was reported to be on time 99 out of 100 times.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
407 Front -1890

Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Ania M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Back in Time”
Site #5
The Pitney House
289 W 4th
1874

The Pitneys bought the house three years after they were married. Mrs. Pitney was born in this house and lived here most of her life. She left it to the local historical society upon her death in 1995.

“Go Directly to Jail”
Site #6
Junction City Jail
289 W 4th on alley
1873

Built for the sum of $84.37, Junction City’s first jail was originally located at the back of city hall. Later it was moved to a local farm and used as a pump house. In 1998, it was donated to the Junction City Historical Society, by the Nill family.

“Need a Place to Stay?”
Site #8
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
407 Front -1890

Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Ania M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Finnish Fanfare”
Site #3
Finnish Train
5th & Holly in Founder’s Park
1914

This locomotive was built in Finland and used during WWI. In 1980, it was transported from Portland, Oregon, to Junction City, after negotiations with the Finnish Consul.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
407 Front -1890

Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Ania M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Back in Time”
Site #5
The Pitney House
289 W 4th
1874

The Pitneys bought the house three years after they were married. Mrs. Pitney was born in this house and lived here most of her life. She left it to the local historical society upon her death in 1995.

“Go Directly to Jail”
Site #6
Junction City Jail
289 W 4th on alley
1873

Built for the sum of $84.37, Junction City’s first jail was originally located at the back of city hall. Later it was moved to a local farm and used as a pump house. In 1998, it was donated to the Junction City Historical Society, by the Nill family.

“Need a Place to Stay?”
Site #8
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
407 Front -1890

Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Ania M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Finnish Fanfare”
Site #3
Finnish Train
5th & Holly in Founder’s Park
1914

This locomotive was built in Finland and used during WWI. In 1980, it was transported from Portland, Oregon, to Junction City, after negotiations with the Finnish Consul.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
407 Front -1890

Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Ania M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Back in Time”
Site #5
The Pitney House
289 W 4th
1874

The Pitneys bought the house three years after they were married. Mrs. Pitney was born in this house and lived here most of her life. She left it to the local historical society upon her death in 1995.

“Go Directly to Jail”
Site #6
Junction City Jail
289 W 4th on alley
1873

Built for the sum of $84.37, Junction City’s first jail was originally located at the back of city hall. Later it was moved to a local farm and used as a pump house. In 1998, it was donated to the Junction City Historical Society, by the Nill family.

“Need a Place to Stay?”
Site #8
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
407 Front -1890

Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Ania M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Finnish Fanfare”
Site #3
Finnish Train
5th & Holly in Founder’s Park
1914

This locomotive was built in Finland and used during WWI. In 1980, it was transported from Portland, Oregon, to Junction City, after negotiations with the Finnish Consul.

“Stop by to see the Local Blacksmith”
Site #7A
Former “Ducky” Lee Hotel
407 Front -1890

Built as a drugstore, it became a hotel after Mr. Lee’s death. In 1913, it was reported that Mrs. Ania M. “Ducky” Lee provided good meals and splendid accommodations.

“Back in Time”
Site #5
The Pitney House
289 W 4th
1874

The Pitneys bought the house three years after they were married. Mrs. Pitney was born in this house and lived here most of her life. She left it to the local historical society upon her death in 1995.

“Go Directly to Jail”
Site #6
Junction City Jail
289 W 4th on alley
1873

Built for the sum of $84.37, Junction City’s first jail was originally located at the back of city hall. Later it was moved to a local farm and used as a pump house. In 1998, it was donated to the Junction City Historical Society, by the Nill family.
“An Evening Out”
Site #9
Junction City Opera House
Front Street between 6th & 7th
Reported to be the finest opera house between Seattle and San Francisco. Opera and ballroom were on the upper story. Shops and hotel rooms were on the ground floor. This building burned in 1915.

“A Place of Service”
Site #11
City Hall / Fire Department
NW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1878
The first city hall of Junction City was built for $350. The volunteer fire department was housed on the lower floor and city offices were above.

“Standing Strong”
Site #12
Oddfellows Building
SE corner of 6th & Greenwood
1909
This lodge cost $10,000 to build. It had a reception room, large banquet hall and kitchens very accommodating.

“Let’s Go to the Show”
Site #13
The Valley Theater
Ivy Street between 5th & 6th
Early 1940’s
This theater was built soon after Highway 99 opened. It was remodeled in art deco style, inside and out, around 1995.

“Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic”
Site #17
Junction City Elementary School
NW corner of 7th & Juniper
1900
The school was built on this site, and torn down in 1929. A new grade school was built on the same location, and later sold in 1976 when Oaklea Middle School opened.

“A Danish Place of Gathering”
Site #20
Danish Lutheran Church
926 W 6th
1908
This official church of the Danish colony was built on the corner of 7th and Ivy. It was moved to this site on W 6th in 1940, when Highway 99 separated the church from the old.

“From Pumpkins to Water Tower”
Site #10
“Punkin” Show Building
NW corner of 7th & Front
1905
This was the site of the skating rink and later the site of the annual “Punkin” Show, an exhibition fair for farm produce, flowers, etc. The carousel was created for the show’s first year, 1910. After this building burned, the water tower and pump house were built in 1938.

“Need Something for the Farm?”
Site #12
Lee’s Drug, Farmers & Merchants Bank, Hardware Store, General Merchandise Store
190, 180, 170, 160 W 6th
(from West to East)
1908
In 1890, Dr. Lee built the drug store for his son to operate. W.G. Pickett built the other three buildings in 1892.

“1890s City Center”
Site #14
Moorhead House
167 Juniper
1878
This house was once owned by S.L. Moorhead, founder and publisher of the Junction City Times in the late 1800s. He was also an active politician.

“A Place of Service”
Site #11
City Hall / Fire Department
NW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1878
This first city hall of Junction City was built for $350. The volunteer fire department was housed on the lower floor and city offices were above.

“Standing Strong”
Site #12
Oddfellows Building
SE corner of 6th & Greenwood
1909
This lodge cost $10,000 to build. It had a reception room, large banquet hall and kitchens very accommodating.

“Let’s Go to the Show”
Site #13
The Valley Theater
Ivy Street between 5th & 6th
Early 1940’s
This theater was built soon after Highway 99 opened. It was remodeled in art deco style, inside and out, around 1995.

“Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic”
Site #17
Junction City Elementary School
NW corner of 7th & Juniper
1900
The school was built on this site, and torn down in 1929. A new grade school was built on the same location, and later sold in 1976 when Oaklea Middle School opened.

“A Danish Place of Gathering”
Site #20
Danish Lutheran Church
926 W 6th
1908
This official church of the Danish colony was built on the corner of 7th and Ivy. It was moved to this site on W 6th in 1940, when Highway 99 separated the church from the old.
“An Evening Out”
Junction City Opera House
Front Street between 6th & 7th
Reported to be the finest opera house between Seattle and San Francisco, opera and balls were on the upper story. Shops and hotel rooms were on the ground floor. This building burned in 1915.

“Standing Strong”
Oldfield Building
SE corner of 6th & Greenwood
1929
This theater was built soon after Highway 99 opened. It was remodeled in art deco style, inside and out, around 1953.

“A Place of Service”
City Hall / Fire Department
NW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1878
The first city hall of Junction City was built for $350. The volunteer fire department was housed on the lower floor and city offices were above.

“Let’s Go to the Show”
The Valley Theater
Ivy Street between 5th & 6th
This theater was built soon after Highway 99 opened. It was remodeled in art deco style, inside and out, around 1953.

“Let’s Make a Deal”
G.M. Jackson House
670 W 6th
1910
This was home to G.M. Jackson, a prominent businessman. In 1889, he started a general merchandise business with his son, and also ran a real estate firm.

“A Danish Place of Gathering”
Danish Lutheran Church
926 W 6th
1908
This official church of the Danish colony was built on the corner of 7th and Ivy. It was moved to this site on W 6th in 1940, when Highway 99 separated the church from its hall.

“Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic”
Washburne School
NW corner of 7th & Juniper
1909
The school was built on this site, and torn down in 1929. A new grade school was built on the same location, and later sold in 1979 when Oaklea Middle School opened.

“Need Something for the Farm?”
Lee’s Drug, Farmers & Merchants Bank, Hardware Store, General Merchandise Store
190, 180, 170, 160 W 6th
(from West to East)
In 1890, Dr. Lee built the drug store for his son to operate. W.G. Pickett built the other three buildings in 1892.

“A House of History”
Moorhead House
617 Juniper
1878
This house was once owned by S.L. Moorhead, founder and publisher of the Junction City Times in the late 1800s. He was also an active politician.

“Higher Learning”
Washburne Park
6th between Laurel & Maple
1908
Washburne Park is the site of the former school, built on land donated by the Washburne family. Grades 6 – 8 were on the lower floor, while the high school had the second floor. In 1936, a new brick school was built one block to the SW on Maple Street.

“Higher Learning”
Washburne School
6th between Laurel & Maple
1908
Washburne Park is the site of the former school, built on land donated by the Washburne family. Grades 6 – 8 were on the lower floor, while the high school had the second floor. In 1936, a new brick school was built one block to the SW on Maple Street.

“1890s City Center”
Mason Building
SW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1909
D.F. Mason & Son had this building constructed for their business of selling hardware, furniture, stoves, farm implements, wagons, etc. Flats and office rooms were on the second floor. Later, it was used as a department store.

“From Pumpkins to Water Tower”
“Punkin” Show Building
NW corner of 7th & Front
1905
This was the site of the skating rink and later the site of the annual “Punkin” Show, an exhibit and fair for farm produce, flowers, etc. The carousel was created for the show’s first year, 1910. After this building burned, the water tower and pump house were built in 1938.

“Standing Strong”
The Valley Theater
Ivy Street between 5th & 6th
Early 1940’s
This theater was built soon after Highway 99 opened. It was remodeled in art deco style, inside and out, around 1953.

“1890s City Center”
Mason Building
SW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1909
D.F. Mason & Son had this building constructed for their business of selling hardware, furniture, stoves, farm implements, wagons, etc. Flats and office rooms were on the second floor. Later, it was used as a department store.

“A Place of Service”
City Hall / Fire Department
NW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1878
The first city hall of Junction City was built for $350. The volunteer fire department was housed on the lower floor and city offices were above.

“Let’s Go to the Show”
The Valley Theater
Ivy Street between 5th & 6th
Early 1940’s
This theater was built soon after Highway 99 opened. It was remodeled in art deco style, inside and out, around 1953.

“A Place of Service”
City Hall / Fire Department
NW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1878
The first city hall of Junction City was built for $350. The volunteer fire department was housed on the lower floor and city offices were above.

“Standing Strong”
The Valley Theater
Ivy Street between 5th & 6th
Early 1940’s
This theater was built soon after Highway 99 opened. It was remodeled in art deco style, inside and out, around 1953.

“A Place of Service”
City Hall / Fire Department
NW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1878
The first city hall of Junction City was built for $350. The volunteer fire department was housed on the lower floor and city offices were above.

“Let’s Go to the Show”
The Valley Theater
Ivy Street between 5th & 6th
Early 1940’s
This theater was built soon after Highway 99 opened. It was remodeled in art deco style, inside and out, around 1953.

“A Place of Service”
City Hall / Fire Department
NW corner of Greenwood & 6th
1878
The first city hall of Junction City was built for $350. The volunteer fire department was housed on the lower floor and city offices were above.